

Inspirationcourse in Aarhus with amongst others

Edward Kreitman

August 9th- 13th 2017

Aarhus Musikskole, Vester Alle 3, 8000 Aarhus C, Denmark

It is a great pleasure to invite Suzuki™ Teachers to this inspirationcourse. The main speaker is Edward Kreitman, who is one of the leading Suzuki™ violinteachers in USA. He is the author of two books on the Suzuki™ Method; "Teaching from the Balance Point" and "Teaching with an open heart". His lectures will amongst other be on topics from these books (which can be ordered at <http://www.britishsuzuki.org.uk/> ). Read more about Edward Kreitman on <https://www.wsste.com/kreitman> .

The course has received finansiel and practical support from Det midtjyske Stryger Samarbejde and Aarhus Musikskole.

The course is split into 3 modules. You can sign up for each one individually or all of them. The course will be in english.

Modul C), August 12th - 13th

Observation of groupclasses and a few lectures

You have the opportunity to observe at "Kickstart Workshop" for Suzuki™ violinstudents. We have gathered a great faculty

- Phyllis Freeman (USA), see above
- Fernando Piñero (Argentina), one of the main Suzuki™violinteachers in Latinamerica. He will give a short talk about Suzuki™ in South America.
- Wilfried van Gorp (Belgium), a fantastic teacher, which most of you already know.
- Juan Carlos Navarro Gimeno (Spain), a great teacher, who has brought a lot of fresh new ideas into the Suzuki™ teaching.
- Eva Belvelin (Sverige), formerly known as Bogren. See above
- Dan Dery (Switzerland), former Suzuki™ student, educated on Julliard School in New York, has beside his teaching performed as a soloist and made recordings. He also is the man behind the Suzuki™ app "MyOngaku". Here he will focus on improving the technique of the advanced students.

See the students invitation for further information.
